GENEALOGY OF THE WEMP FAMILY OF AMHERST ISLAND, PROVINCE OF ONTARIO, CANADA.

great great great
BARNABAS WEMP.

(Barent Wemple.)

He was baptized in Schenectady, N.Y., September 3rd, 1738. His sister Jannetje, mentions him in her will as her eldest brother, devising to him five shillings, and, in describing a piece of land which she leaves to her aunt, she describes it as being bounded on the East by land belonging to her brothers Barent and Arent. It is supposed that he lived a short distance from Schenectady City on the road to Niskayuna, but possibly his home lot is now included in the present city limits.

In the muster-roll of Capt. Daniel Campbell's Schenectady company, returned May 1, 1767 and preserved in Vol. 14, page 209, of "Sir Wm. Johnson Manuscripts," in the State Library, Albany, N.Y., he is listed as a private in the company.

He was a private in the first regiment of the line, during part of the Revolutionary War, under Col. G. Van Schaick. (See copy of letter from Record and Pension Office, Washington, D.C.),

During the latter part of the Revolutionary War he became a "Loyalist," and fled from the Mohawk Valley to Canada, leaving behind land and other property. About 1840 his sons, John and William, visited the Mohawk Valley for the purpose of securing the property left behind by the father upon his removal to Canada, but, of course, they were unsuccessful.

His grandchildren remember well the stories related time and again by his wife, how, on leaving New York State, they went to Niagara, crossed over to what was then known as Little York, now the City of Toronto. From there they went in batteaux, a sort of row boat used then, to Kingston, at the Port of the Bay of Quinte, and from there went to the Isle of Tantie, as at that time called, but now known as Amherst Island. Here they made their permanent home and are buried on their own farm.

In a book entitled "The Centennial of the Settlement of Upper Canada by the United Empire Loyalists, 1784-1884," published by the Centennial Committee, and printed, 1885, by Rose Publishing Co., Toronto, is a copy of the original "Old United Empire List," preserved in the Crown Lands Department at Toronto, which states that "Barnabas Wemp (Wimpel), residence Kingston, soldier in Col. Guy Johnson's Forrèsters (Owen Robbin's affidavit, 1807). "Land Board of Mecklenburg, 1791, G.H. 1785-100. Provision List of Kingston says he belonged to Royal Regiment of New York in 1786. (Stamped Book)."

It will be noticed by referring to the letter from Record and Pension Office that he was called "Wemp" on all the rolls of Col. Van Schaick's regiment in the Revolution, showing that he was so called during his residence in New York State. This short form of the name he retained on removing to Canada, and was known by that only, which name has been retained by all his descendants to the present day. The fact that his correct name was "Wemple" is shown by the insertion in parenthesis of the English form "Wimpel," after the name "Wemp" in the old United Empire List. Further proof of this is also contained in the "Register of Baptisms for the Township of Fredericksburg" in the baptismal record of one of his children, as follows: "Mary, daughter of Barnabas and Katreen Wemple, of Marysburgh, June 2, 1791. This record has the name written in the true form of "Wemple." The other baptismal records of their other children have it written "Wemp."

The name Barnabas is merely the English form of the Holland Dutch given-name Barent and was no doubt more familiar to those living in Canada.

He was married, December 11th, 1779, to Catherine Gates, who died August 27th, 1843. Her father's name was probably Michael Gates, but this has not yet been verified. They both died in the same year, as the following records, found by Rev. Jas. Cumberland, Stella, Ont., in the old Register of the Anglican Church, there, will show. "Catherine Wemp, U. E. Loyalist, date of interment, August 29th, 1843; Barnabas Wemp, U. E. Loyalist, date of interment, December 27th, 1843; Both at McDonald's. Mr. Cumberland says this is the little plot where the son-in-law, McDonald, had buried one or two of his family, where the Cairn with Cross now stands. He says he thinks her designation as U. E. Loyalist" is presumptive evidence that she came with him to Canada from the States.

Notwithstanding his advanced age at that time he made a special trip back to his old home on Amherst Island for the purpose of gathering all the available dates and other material and talking over the old traditions with those still left who were farther advanced in life even than he.

January 22nd, 1898.

Hon. James A. Roberts,
Comptroller, State of New York,
Albany.

Dear Sir:—

In reply to your letter of the 20th inst., received this morning, in which you request to be furnished with a statement of the record of Revolutionary service, and a tracing of the signature, of Barent Wemple, a private of Colonel Wyncoop's Regiment, also similar information relative to Barent Wemp, a private of Colonel Van Schaick's Regiment, I beg to advise you as follows:

The records on file in this office show that Barnet Wemple was a member (rank not stated) of Captain Gerrit S. Veeder's Company "in the Regiment of forces of the United Colonies raised in and for the defence of the Colony of New York," which was commanded by Colonel Cornelius D. Wyncoop, Revolutionary War. The name of the soldier appears only on a company muster roll covering the period from March 1st to May 23rd, 1776, which shows that he enlisted April 11th, 1776, but affords no further information with regard to him. No document bearing his signature has been found on file.

The name of Barent Wemp (?) (also spelled Wemple) appears as that of a private in Captain John Copp's Company of the 1st Battalion of New York Forces, commanded by Colonel Goose Van Schaick, Revolutionary War. His name first appears on a Company Muster Roll covering the period from Nov. 21st, 1776 to June 5th, 1777, which shows that he enlisted Dec. 28th (year not stated) for the period of the war. He is reported, without remark, on rolls of the Company up to and including the roll for the month of May, 1778. The roll for June, 1778, reports him "absent without leave and supposed to be sick," and the rolls covering the period from July to December, 1778, report him as "Sick at Prince Town." Later rolls up to and including that for the month of December, 1779, report him "Sick at Trentown, June 28th, 1778." The roll for January and February, 1780, shows him "Transferred to Corps of Invalids." No further record of him has been found nor has any paper bearing his signature been found on the files of the office.

With very kind regards to yourself personally, I am,

Very respectfully,

(Signed) F. C. AINSWORTH,
Colonel U. S. Army,
Chief, Record and Pension Office.

Jan Barentse Wamp.

Old Fort Johnson, by W. Max Reid, 1906.

In 1754, a young English Lieutenant, Robert Slattery, was ⁱⁿ under command of Fort Hunter. His headquarters was in an old stone building known as Queen Anne's Chapel parsonage. The soldiers were quartered inside the palisade which enclosed the chapel, and in the chapel itself.

Back of the parsonage to the south extended the primitive forest, with occasional openings made by settlers, partially under cultivation. To the east, west & north were hundreds of acres of flat lands under cultivation by the Indians and the few ~~white~~ men who constituted the settlement of Ticonderoga. Their nearest neighbor to the east was the family of Jan Wamp

1756, 30 Dec. Letter to Sir Wm Johnson from Jelles Fonda at Cach(nawaga).

Barant Wampel, son of Mindent Wampel to go with me. I can not think that I could do without him and I now that Barant Wampel understands the Sennece Tong very well and is very well known among the Indians there I have agreed with him for five shillings pr. day

Letter Thomas Butler

(We have been told by some Indians that) we were going to Death
Co. We do not mind them, the Sinakas here with Mr. Abeel tells us the same, and Barant Wamp, whom they seem to have a regard for, advise him to return home. These Sinakas with Abeel tell Barant Wamp just now while I am writing that Abeel was constantly so feared that he did not venture out side the Fort & got these Indians in a hurry to bring him away

1757 Jan A Report of Thomas Butler & Jelles Fonda at Their return from Onondagah.

9th Jan. We desir'd Mr. Barant Wamp one of our Company and who was well acquainted with the Sinakas and could speak their language to go and inquire of them what news was stirring in their Country &c; he said one of the Indians was a great friend of his, and went to their Hutt where he sat and had considerable talk with him. who was the Yongiat son of a Sachem known by the Name of the drunkard.
. Mr. Wamp told us as soon as he sat down by his friend he askt him whither he was going. who made answer to the Sinakas your country. the Indian said you are far enough.
dout go there unless you want to be burnt. And so you had better turn back otherways the French or their Indians will get you.
Wamp askt if we might not safely go to Kiyoga Castle. the Indian said there you'd find it was, for they will betray you.

WEMPLE.

New York Public Library, 1955.

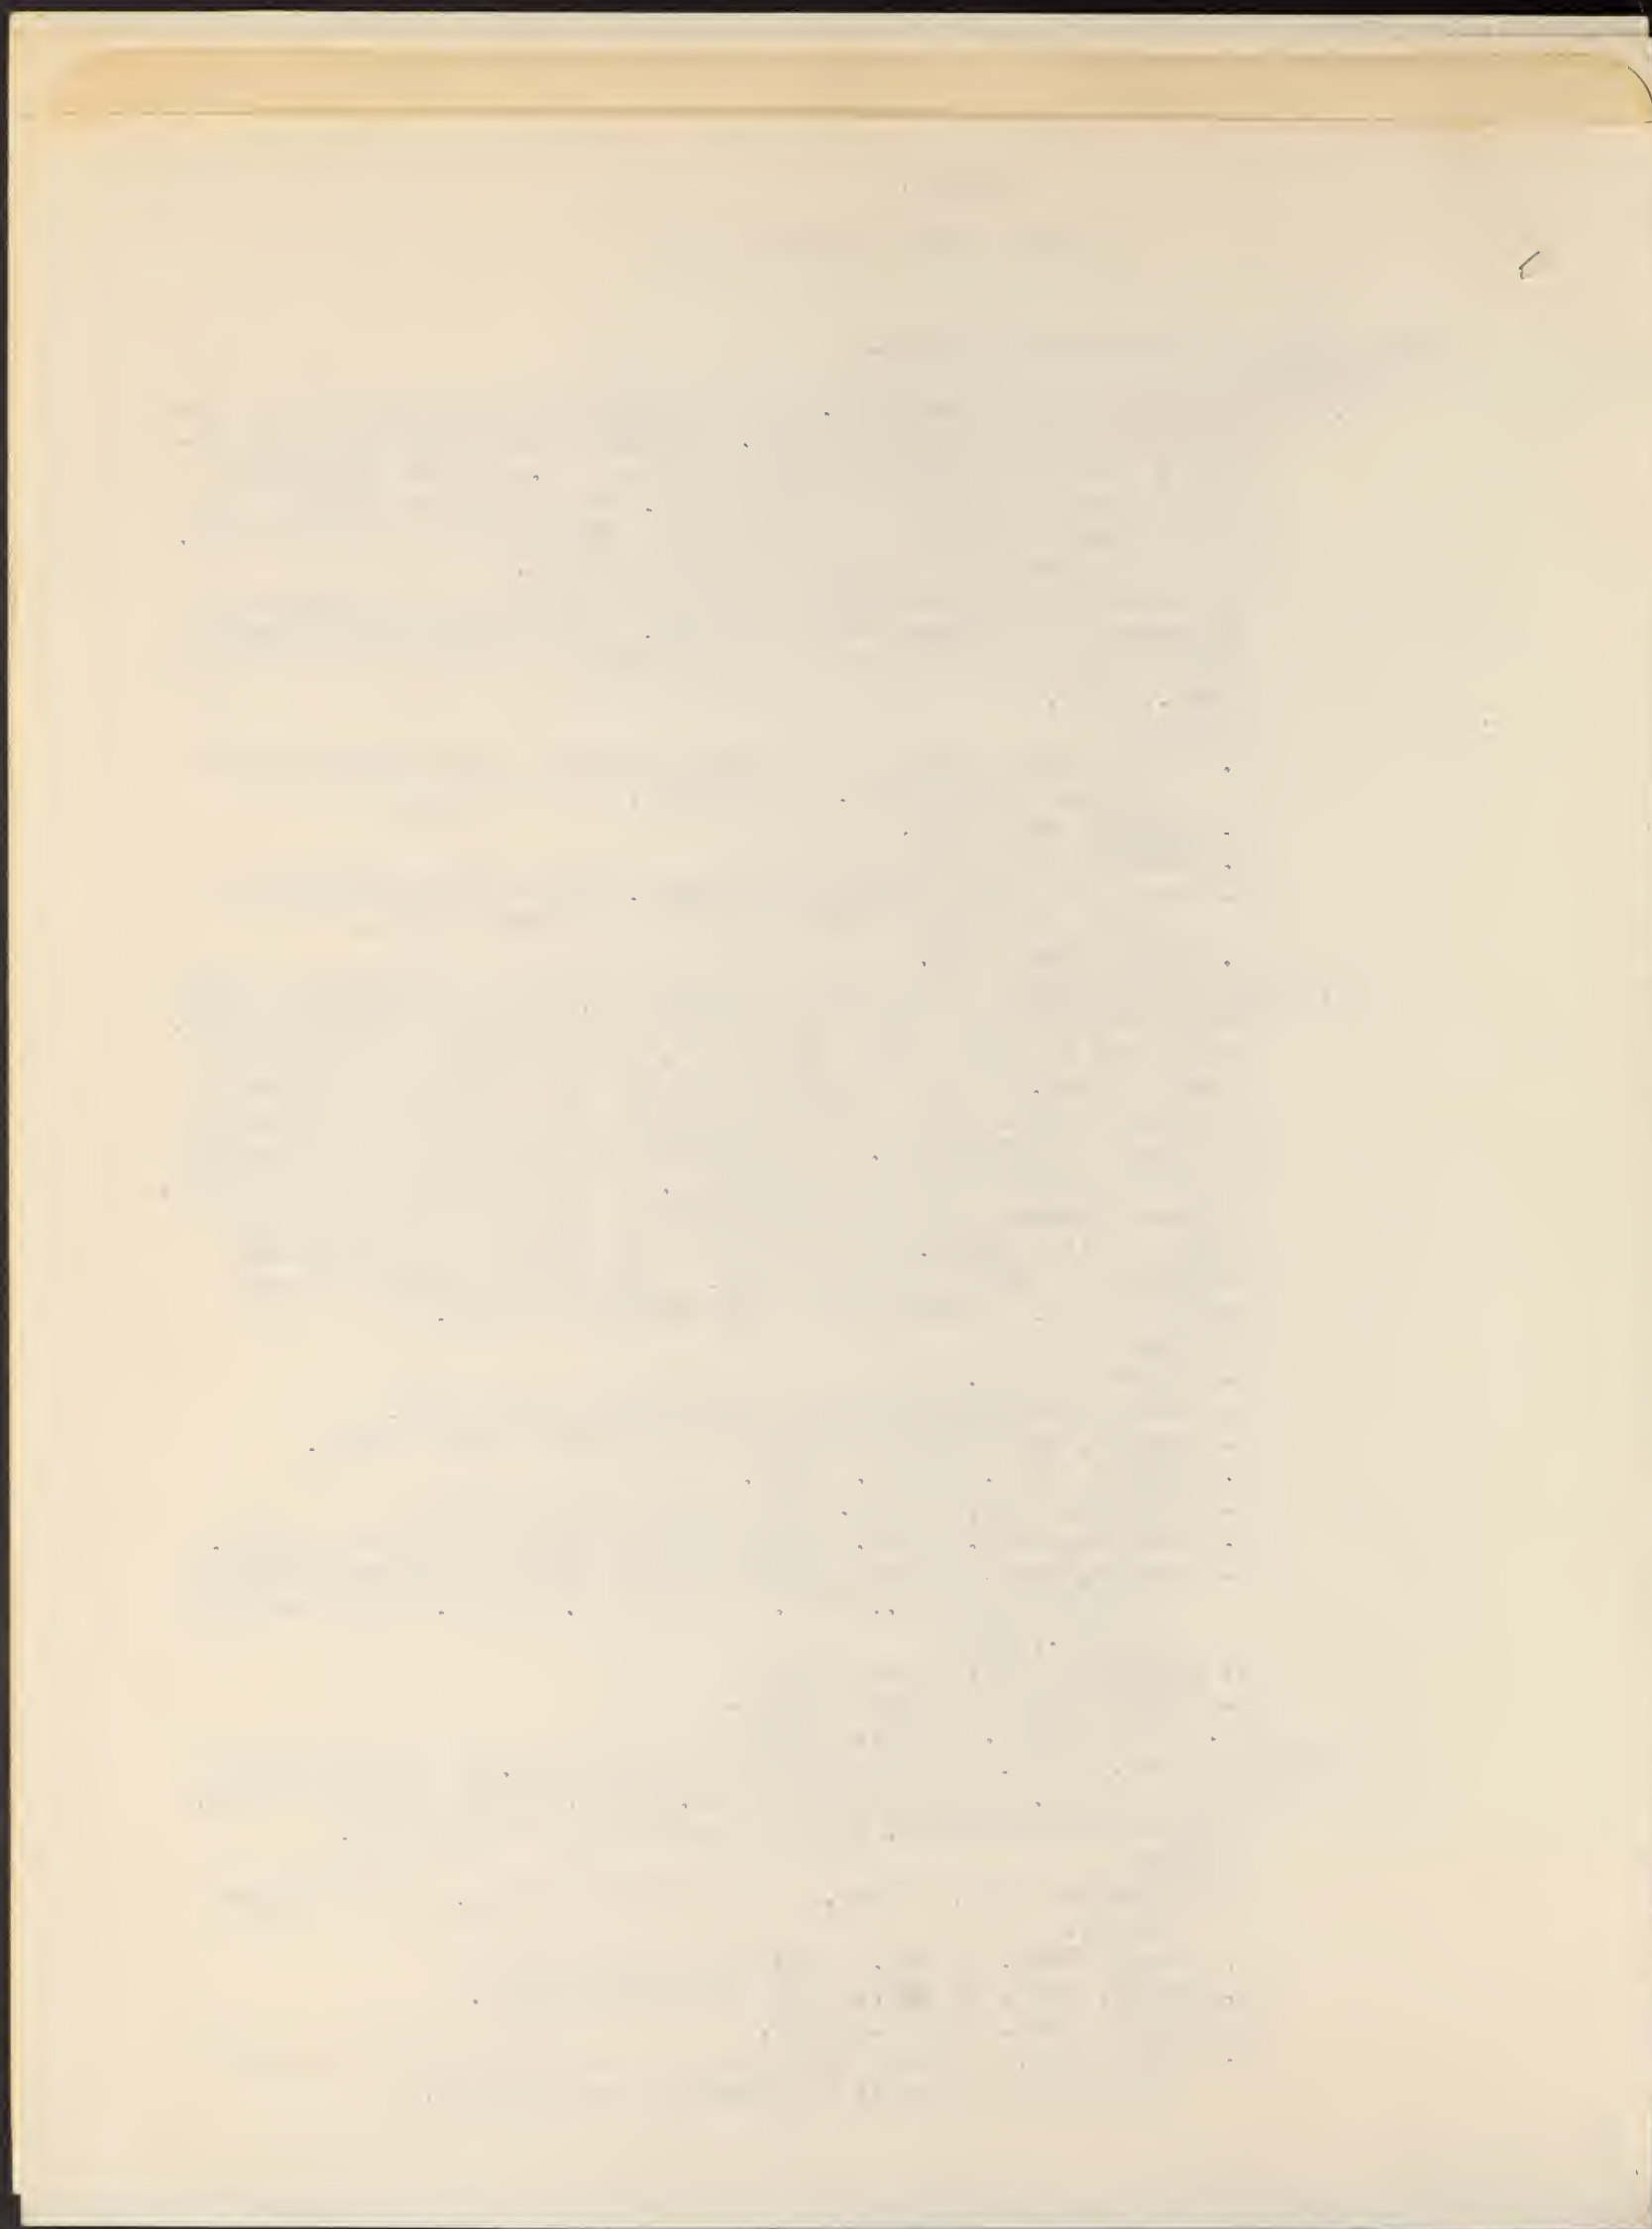

BARENT WEMPLE, never came to America.

children:

- +1. JAN BARENTSON, born about 1620. Came to America about 1645, and was then living in Rensselaerwyck Colony. In 1659 he purchased from the Indians a farm now within the City of Troy, N.Y., on the Poestenkil. Built a sawmill known as Poesten Mill. Was granted on 12 Nov., 1772 with Jacques Cornelise (Van Slyck) the great island at Schenectady. He died between May 18, 1663 and July 7, 1663. He married MARITIE MYNDERTS, who married second Sweer Theunisse Van Westbroeck (also known as Van Velsen). She and her second husband were killed in the massacre of Schenectady by the French and Indians 9 Feb., 1690.

Children:

John Schuyler which went to Canada 13 Aug., 1690 to fight the enemy, and after the engagement, returned 30 Aug., 1690. He was appointed one of four census takers of Albany 6 April, 1697. He was deacon and elder of the Schenectady Dutch Reformed Church for many years. He served as sergeant of Capt. Johannes Sanderse Glen's Foot Company in 1715, and later of Capt. Symon Toll's Company. He was one of five trustees of the second Schenectady Patent, granted 6 Nov., 1714, and continued as such until he died. He was alive in 1743, aged 87 years.

 - 5. Arent, bapt. 12 July, 1740; became a Loyalist in the Revolution and went to Canada; not known to have married.

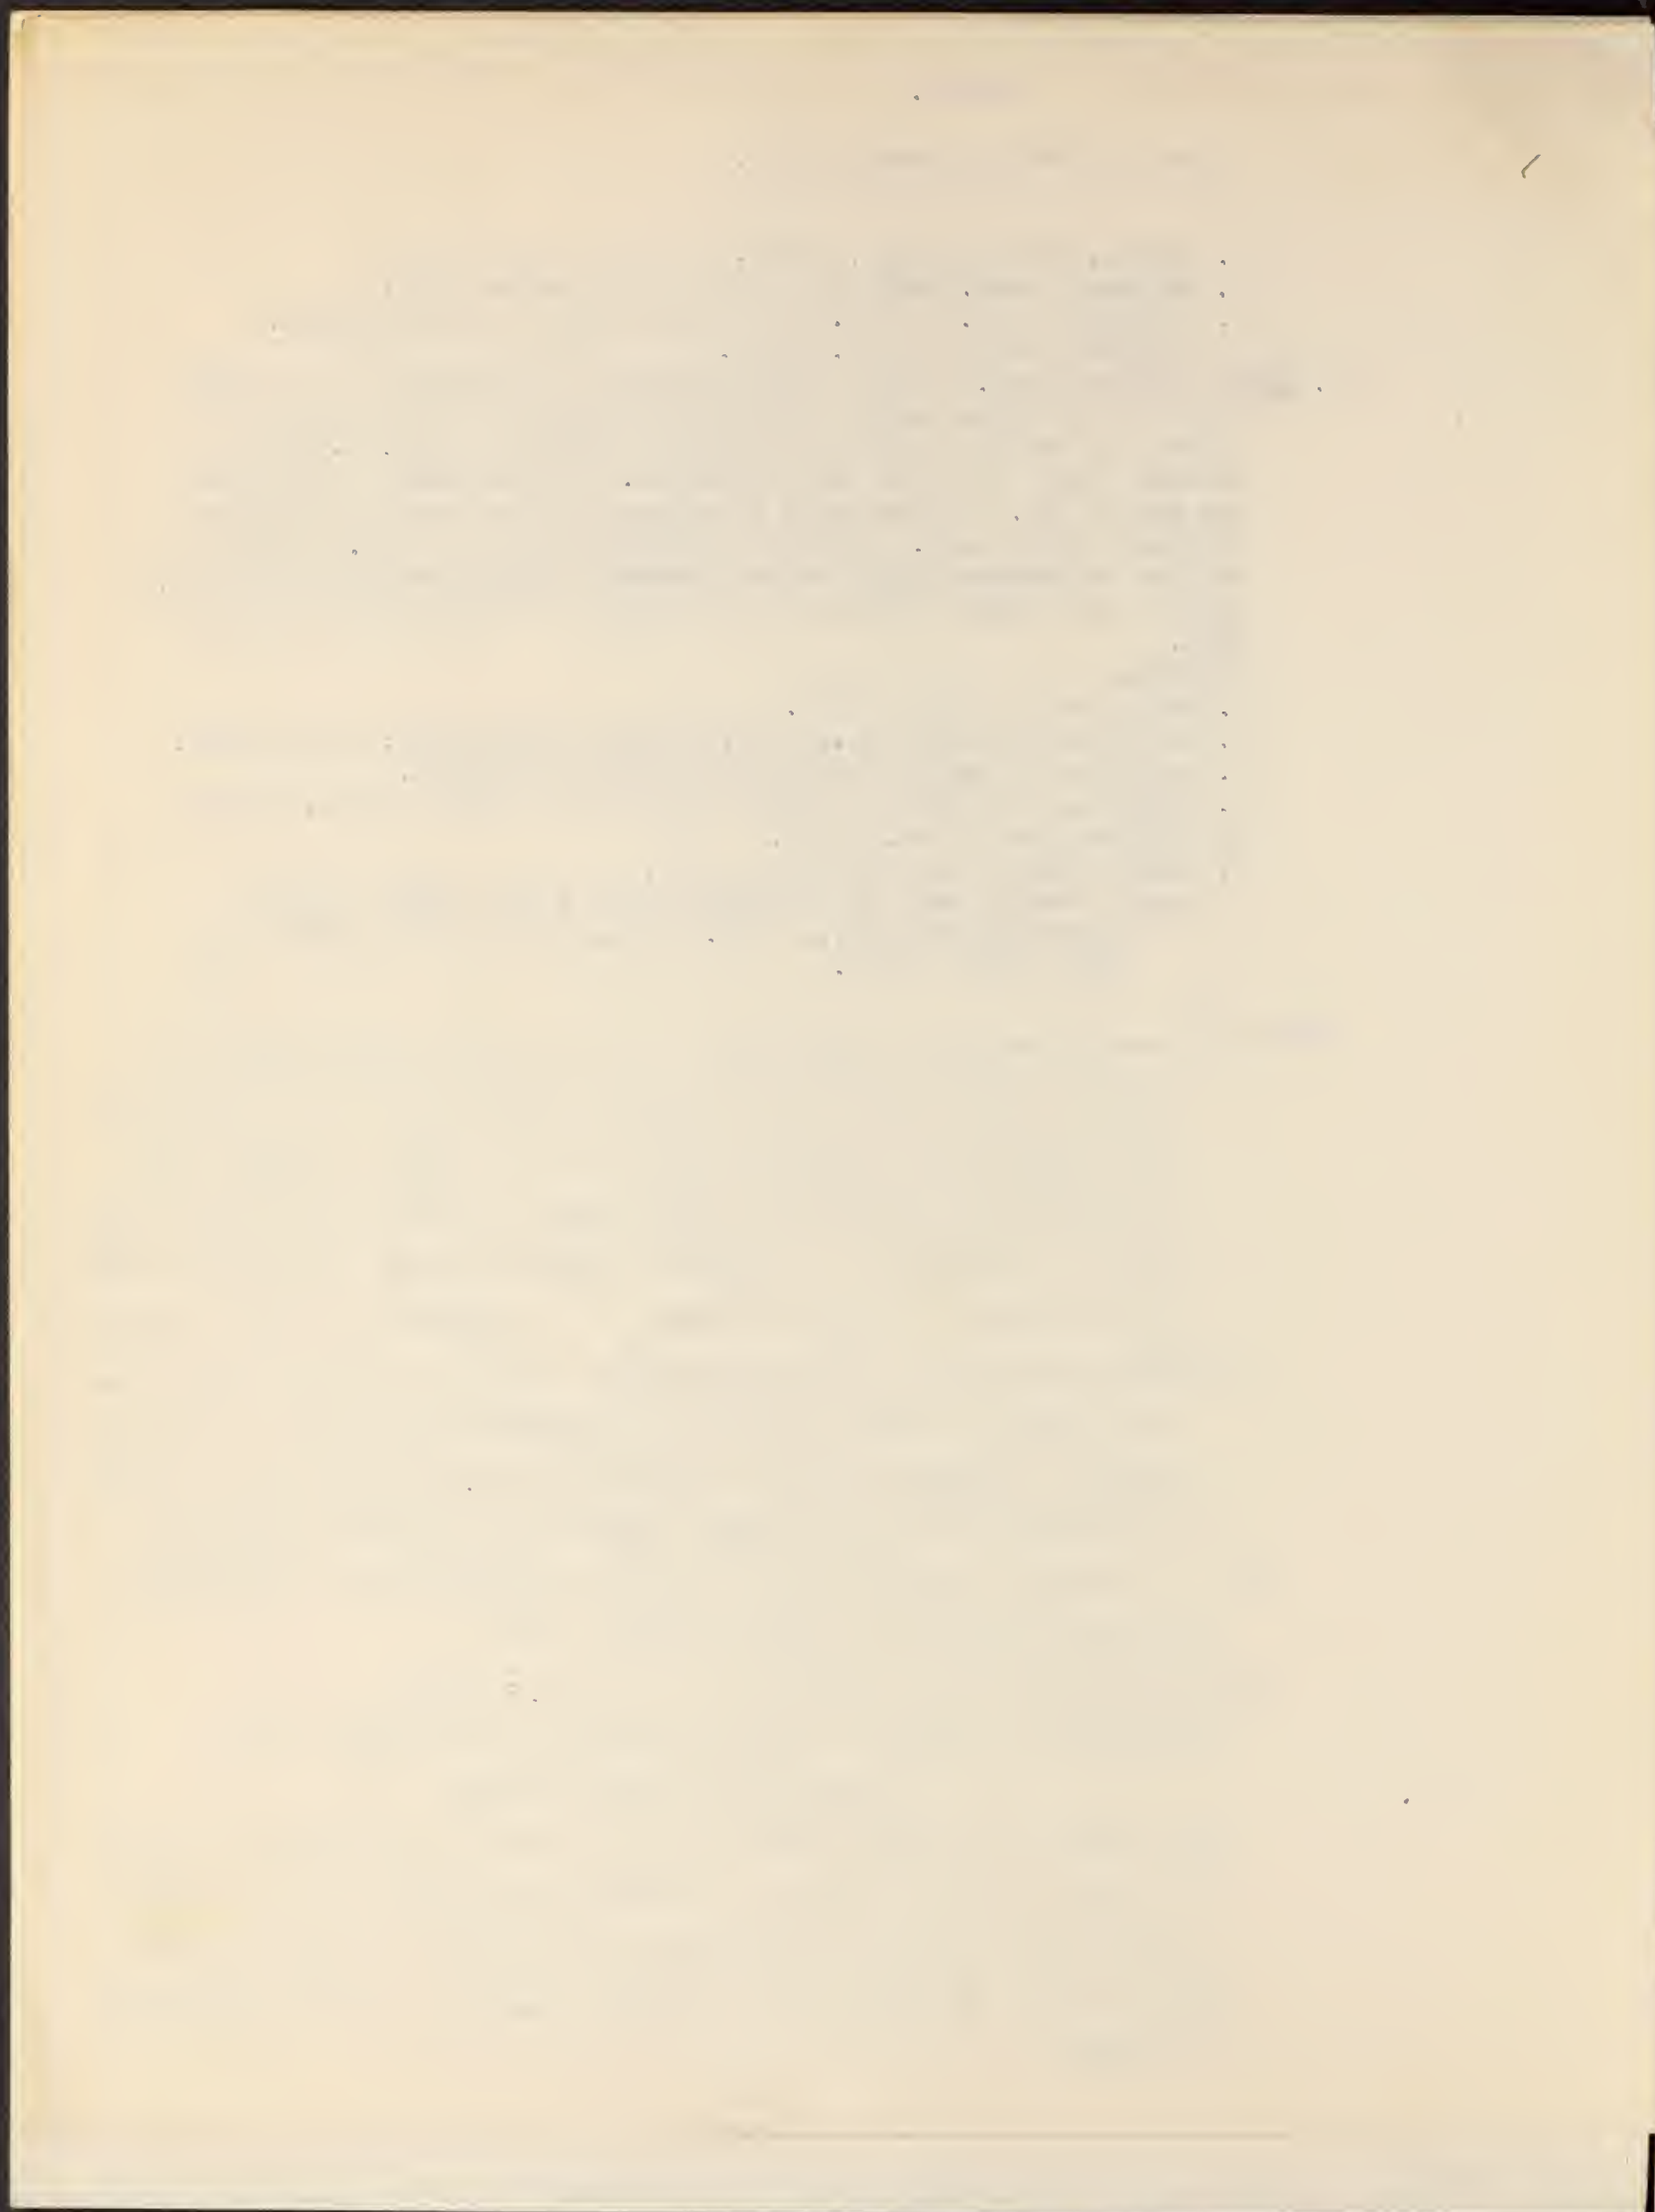

New York Public Library, 1955.

6. Volkje, bapt. 26 Sept., 1742.
 7. Johannes, bapt. ~~20~~ 8 April, 1744; died before 1748.
 8. Jannetje, bapt. 20 Mar., 1746; died about 1776, unmarried.
 9. Johannes, bapt. 13 Nov., 1748.
 4. BARENT WEMPLE, bapt. 3 Sept., 1738; lived in Schenectady, N.Y. He was a private in Capt. Daniel Campbell's Company in 1767; served as a private in the 1st Regiment of the New York Line, Col. G. Van Schaack, until 1780, in the Revolution. He then became a Loyalist and joined Col. Guy Johnson's Foresters, also belonged to the Royal Regiment of New York. He married Catherine Gates 11 Dec., 1779. Settled on Amherst Island and was known in Canada as "BARNABAS WEMP." All his descendants are now known as Wemp. His wife died 27 Aug., 1843.
- Children:
1. John, born 12 March, 1785.
 2. Catherine, born 15 Oct., 1787; married James Scott. No children.
 3. Mary, born 6 April, 1791; married Duncan McDonald.
 4. Margaret, born 30 Dec., 1793; married (Francis) Nowland. (pencil)
 5. William, born 9 Nov., 1796.
 6. Michael Gates, born 23 April, 1799.
 7. Rachel Youngs, born 28 May, 1803; died 2 May, 1875; married George Howard 8 Nov., 1826. He was born 16 June, 1805, and died 1 April, 1878.

Note: It would appear that there is an error with regard to Barent (Barnabas) Wemp (Wemple) the U. S. Loyalist. This genealogy states that he was born 3 Sept 1738. A roll of Loyalists at Cataragui 4 Dec 1783, gives his age as 24 years 6 months, which would indicate that he was born in June 1759 — a difference of 21 years. Furthermore, if, as indicated above, Barent, the Loyalist, was a private in Capt. Daniel Campbell's Company in 1767, he was then 8 years of age. Also, he was, if born in 1738, aged 65 at the birth of his youngest child, Rachel Youngs. To my notion Barent, the Loyalist, belongs to a younger generation than the Barent, born 1738.

Clark's Diary records Barent Wemple's death:
1843, Dec. 25 — Old Mr. Wemp died as Mrs. Fitch's (his daughter, Collins Bay).

If, as the genealogy states, he was born in 1738, he must have been 105 yrs of age, which great age would most surely have been recorded by the diarist if it had been true. It is far more likely that he was 84 years old at death.

WEMPLE

Jan Barentse Wemp, also Poelt (?), arrived in Beverwyck in 1643-5, where he owned several lots; received a contract from Madam Johanna De Loet for a bouvery at Lubberde's Land (Troy), which his heirs in 1669-72 conveyed to Pieter Pieterse Van Waggeclum whom Wemp's son Myndert, sued in 1675 for the fourth payment. This bouvery was on the Poesterkil, which was probably named from his alias. Dear Mr. Burleigh:

Further to our conversation of Monday evening last, re the burial plot of Barnabus Wemp: I visited the site on Friday last and submit the following for your reference.

The site is marked by a large cairn of loose field stone, on which has been mounted a new wooden cross, presumably by Muntra Wemp. In the forefront (North side) has been placed a marble slab stone on which are mounted two plaques, the upper one which appears to be of bunge bears this inscription -

Sacred to the memory of

Barnabus Wemp

1738 - 1843

45 ~ 1783

And his wife

Catherine Gates

1753 - 1843

30 ~ 1783

United Empire Loyalists.

On the lower portion of the stone a smaller plaque, which appears to be of sheet copper is inscribed as follows:

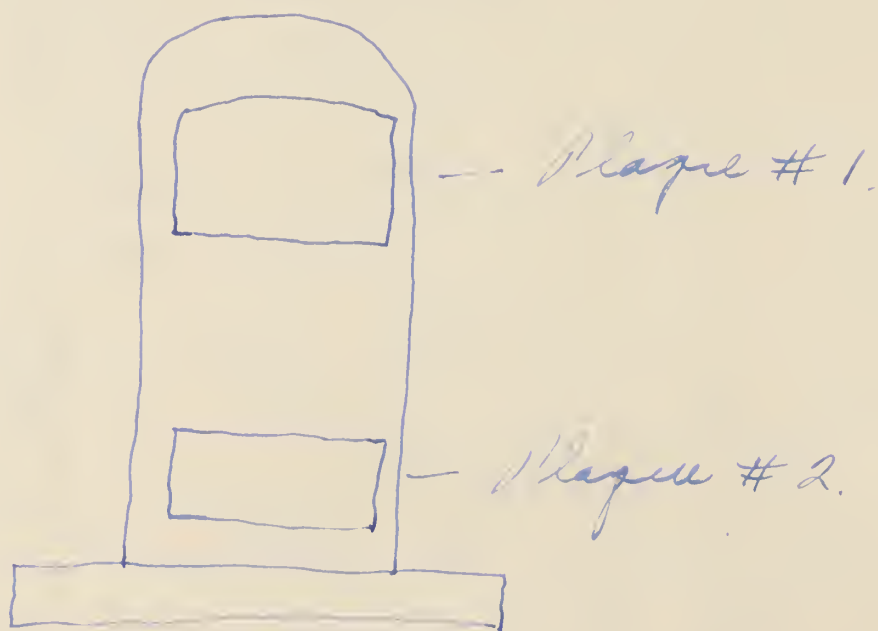

"The above inscription was placed by Mary Florence Wemp in the early nineteen hundreds and this grave site was restored by W. H. Muntray Wemp in 1971.

The whole site is enclosed with steel tubular posts with light painted chain linked from one to the other.

Hoping that this information may be of some help to you - It would appear that Muntray Wemp would not have been responsible for any inaccuracies of dates as these were presumably researched by this Mary Klumbe Wemp before she had the plaque made. I am as ever

St Paul's Presbyterian Church, Inghurst Island³
by
Robert Cumberland

St. Paul's has a long history; the congregation was first originated in 1849, and in 1851 a frame church was built. The Rev. Daniel McCurdy was the first minister. By 1855 membership had increased from 56 to 86.

In 1881 the little frame church was replaced by the present structure of cut limestone. The stone was prepared at Kingston Penitentiary, and was hauled in sleighs across the ice by Island residents. The interior woodwork of alternate oak and cherry adds beauty to the church. At the rear is an exceptionally large and beautiful stained glass window in memory of the Rev. and Mrs. James MacLennan.

Three ministers of St. Paul's rendered outstanding service: the Rev. James McIntosh from 1855 to 1875, the Rev. James Cumberland for 39 years from 1881, the Rev. R. A. Earls for 22 years from 1932. He and Mrs. Earls, the former Arlene Miller of Stella, are now serving the congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Cobden, Ontario.

When the Rev. C. A. Dunn was ordained at St. Paul's in May, 1962, it was the third ordination in the history of the church, and followed that of James Cumberland in 1881, and a former Moderator of the General Assembly, the Rev. Walter McCree in 1921.

Handwritten text in Arabic script, likely a manuscript or letter. The text is written in a cursive style and is mostly illegible due to fading and blurring. It appears to be a single continuous block of text, possibly a letter or a chapter from a book. The script is dense and fills most of the page.

Former mayor won first Canadian DFC

Bert Sterling Wemp, former Toronto mayor, newspaperman and First World War pilot, died yesterday after a bout of emphysema. He was 86.

Major Wemp was the first Canadian airman to receive the Distinguished Flying Cross. France gave him the Croix de Guerre and Belgium the Order of Leopold for bombing and reconnaissance flights.

Born near Tweed, about 20 miles north of Belleville, Major Wemp was educated in Toronto and started at the Evening Telegram as a copy boy when he was 16. Later in a 59-year career with the paper he became reporter, city editor, suburban editor and chief of a joint bureau covering the courts for The Telegram and the Toronto Star.

When the First World War broke out, he volunteered as a flier and was overseas by 1915.

After the war, he served as school trustee and later controller.

In 1929 The Telegram, which spoke for the Orange Lodge in Toronto and dominated the City Council, ran him for mayor against the incumbent, Sam McBride.

Mr. McBride called him a coward after he ignored a challenge to debate. The Telegram retorted by running a large picture of Major Wemp with his medals from the war and asking in an editorial if a man who had won such medals for bravery could have been a coward.

Major Wemp won easily, but dropped out after a one-year term.

During the Second World War he went to Europe several times for The Telegram as a war correspondent, including a tour with the Allied forces invading Italy.

One of his many bosses from The Telegram, which went out of business in 1971, described Major Wemp as an exception to the style of dramatic writing that gave The Telegram its flavor.

He preferred stories told with meticulous detail, and as city and later suburban editor he guided many younger reporters who later went to work for other organizations.

Major Wemp had a weak heart ever since the First World War. His death follows an attack of emphysema last month which weakened him and from which he never fully recovered.

He leaves his wife Irene, a son, William, and a daughter, Mary Skeaff, all of Toronto, and three grandsons.
